	SCHOOL COMMITTEE POLICY DISSEMINATION, ADMINISTRATION, REVISION AND REVIEW	BGC/BGE

HOLLISTON

Policy Dissemination

When policies are adopted, the superintendent will publish and make them available to the public, students, and school personnel.

The School Committee's policy manual will be considered public record and will be available for inspection during the regular working day at the superintendent's office and in the office or library of each school in the district. Furthermore, the policy manual will be available through the Holliston Public Schools website (<http://www.holliston.k12.ma.us>) in its entirety. School handbooks will reflect and include relevant School Committee policies. It will be the responsibility of employees and students to know and follow Committee policy.

Policy Administration

School Committee policies will be implemented through the procedures, programs, and directives developed by the superintendent and other members of the school administration.

Policy Revision and Review

The School Committee will regularly review its established policies in a continuing effort to provide an effective and up-to-date foundation for Committee and administrative decision making. When necessary, policies will be revised or repealed.

The superintendent will call to the Committee's attention any policies that are out of date or that for other reason appear to need revision. In evaluating the efficacy of its policies, the Committee may also rely on information from school personnel, students, and community members.
